Year 8	This unit will analyse the causes and key events of the English Civil War. This will culminate in analysis of interpretations and historical sources about Oliver Cromwell and his leadership.	Africa before slavery: The Mali empire and Mansa Musa. Tackling misconceptions about Africa. The Transatlantic slave trade: The beginnings of trade in the C16th and the development of triangular trade. Students will learn about conditions on the middle passage using sources. They will investigate life in plantations and discover how enslaved people resisted. The end of the slave trade in Britain: An enquiry into the campaigns and events that led to the end of the slave trade. Analysing factors and importance. The work of individuals such as Olaudah Equiano will be included in this. Followed by the aftermath of the slave trade and Windrush.		The Industrial Revolution: This unit will begin with an overview of this period. Students will then study how everyday life changed for people during this period of time by studying food, work, living conditions, disease, travel, key inventors, the development of trains and political protests. We will complete a local study on Cornwall during this period. Students will complete a case study on Whitechapel in the C19th which links to their previous unit on the Industrial Revolution. This also links to our GCSE paper 1 Crime and Punishment. Depending upon the length of this term, this unit may go into the summer term.			C20th overview and revolutionary actions: The Suffragettes with an investigation into the actions of Emily Davison. This is followed by an investigation into the causes of the Russian Revolution. WW1: Causes of WW1, recruitment and life in the Trenches. Focus on contributions made by the British empire in WW1 with analysis of the significance contributions made by India, Canada and Australia.			Curriculum Enrichment Week
