Background for Prospective Candidates

Come and work for a great school in a great location.

Where are we?

Cornwall has far more than just beaches, surfing and world heritage countryside, we also have some of the best schools in the country with the space, facilities and drive to give the best possible education to the students we serve.

Truro is Cornwall's county town, it's only city and the most southern city in mainland Great Britain. Truro has a booming population thanks to its location in the heart of the county and is a centre for art, culture and entertainment.

The school is situated to the West of the city centre and serves the beautiful coastal communities of St. Agnes and Porthtowan as well as communities closer at hand.

The School

Richard Lander School is Truro's largest secondary school. Richard Lander is highly regarded in the area and oversubscribed in several year groups. We have 1520 students on roll. Mr Steve Mulcahy, has been our Headteacher since 2008. We were inspected by OFSTED in 2023 and were graded as a Good school.

We have an ARB for up to 15 students on site which is very much part of our school.

Our Ethos

At the heart of our work is a desire to see all our young people and staff develop their gifts and talents to their full potential. Some people call this ambition, we call it 'being the best you can be'. Our standards are high and our aim is for all children to achieve their full potential, both academically and socially.

The Application

Please see the job description for more details of this exciting post.

Prospective candidates are very welcome to arrange to visit the school by calling the school on 01872 273750. The closing date for applications is midday on Friday 25th July 2025, although the advert may close early if the right candidate is found.

Shortlisted candidates will be informed of the interview date.

Please send your completed forms to the school for the attention of our Personnel Officer, Vicky Harrison, vharrison@richardlander.cornwall.sch.uk Applications should address the items included on the person specification and only candidates who meet the essential criterion will be shortlisted.

The Interview Process

Candidates who are shortlisted for the position will be contacted by a telephone call and this will be followed up with an e-mail.

- In line with Keeping Children Safe in Education 2024, as part of the shortlisting process, the school may carry out an online search on shortlisted candidates.
- All interviews will be face to face and will explore the candidate's suitability for the position.
- Applications will be scrutinised and discrepancies or anomalies in work related history, experience and qualifications will be discussed at the interview stage.
- Successful candidates will be required to achieve a full enhanced DBS disclosure and 2 satisfactory references.

Prepared by

- Mr Steve Mulcahy, Headteacher
- Mrs Jenny Griffiths, Deputy Headteacher
- Mr Ryan Brokenshire, Deputy Headteacher

Safeguarding

Richard Lander School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children. We expect all our team members to share this commitment.
